

“O God of New Beginnings”

1 O God of new be - gin - nings, we come to you this day,
2 Christ Je - sus, by your pres - ence that day in Gal - i - lee,
3 Come, Ho - ly Spir - it, guide us and show us how to be 4 We thank you, Tri - une Lov - er, for prom - is - es most vast,

as o - thers came to Je - sus a - mid the wed - ding fray.
you blessed all fu - ture un - ions with ho - ly dig - ni - ty.
like full and brim - ming ves - sels that serve hu - man - i - ty.
and know that as in Ca - na, you save the best for last.

Pour out your grace up - on us in all we say and do;
En - cour - aged by your mo - ther, you met the need at hand,
May wat - ers of in - jus - tice be changed to wines of love;
We beg you now for vis - ion be - yond our time to see a - wa - ken now our spir - its to min - i - stry a - new.

trans - form - ing earth's re - sourc - es so all would un - der - stand.
our ev - ery act a wit - ness that points to God a - bove.
your mir - a - cle of love reign - ing through e - ter - ni - ty.
