St. John's United Methodist Church is a 2,000-member congregation located in historic Rock Hill, South Carolina (USA). Founded in 1856, the church is recognized for its strong emphasis on missions, its dedication to children, and its aim for excellent music and worship. The Chancel Choir, with 35 active members, is the church's premiere musical ensemble, singing weekly at the church's 11:00 am televised worship service and at other special programs throughout the year.
